NEWINGTON - Three elementary school teachers at Saint Mary School, 652 Willard Avenue, Newington have recently received their Master's of Science degrees in Special Education from Central Connecticut State University. Mr. Bryan Cosham joined SMS as a Kindergarten teacher in 2006. Mrs. Karen Hurley celebrates her 10th year at Saint Mary School as their 1st Grade Teacher, and Mrs. Ashley Cosham has been teaching 2nd Grade at SMS since 2007.

Saint Mary School values the continuing educational and spiritual development of their entire faculty and staff and acknowledges the efforts made by these exceptional individuals. It also recognizes that with the changing needs of students learning abilities, teachers having Special Education background will be able to better formulate and implement individual plans to meet each students specific needs.

Families wishing to explore what a Catholic Education can do for their children may call Saint Mary School at (860) 666-3844.
